

South America Revealed: Brazil and Argentina - Our Signature Journey

This signature 9-day journey provides a great little introduction to South America which is ideal for the first time traveller. One of the great things about this itinerary is that it can be done in reverse order if you prefer and offers the flexibility to add on an extension.

Rio de Janeiro is one of Latin America's iconic cities which should be on the wish list of any traveller to South America. It is vibrant, exciting, immensely friendly and great fun. It is also considerably safer than you might think. The Iguazu Falls are always a joy to visit but get very crowded at weekends. Buenos Aires offers gourmet cuisine, fabulous shopping, vibrant nightlife and superb cultural activities from seductive tango to top-notch opera and long sporting traditions from world-class polo to great football.

Highlights: Rio de Janeiro – Iguazu Falls – Buenos Aires

Number of Days: 9 Days

Accommodation: Choose premium, upper, mid-range or value hotels according to preference.

Indicative Costs: From £1,270 pp excluding transatlantic flights.

Extensions: Please contact us to discuss extensions in Argentina to the Perito Moreno glacier, Bariloche, Mendoza and the vineyards, the Valdes Peninsula, Salta and the north-west or a stay at an estancia. Alternatively you might like a trip across the River Plate to Colonia and Montevideo in Uruguay.

Highlights: Rio de Janeiro – Iguassu Falls – Buenos Aires

Days 1-4: Rio de Janeiro:

- Day 1: Arrival transfer to your hotel; 3 nights' accommodation.
- Day 2: Excursions to Sugarloaf Mountain and to Corcovado Mountain (Statue of Christ the Redeemer)
- Day 3: Free day to explore Rio de Janeiro. Please contact us to arrange additional excursions.
- Day 4: Departure transfer to the airport in time for your flight to Iguassu.

Rio de Janeiro has the most spectacular setting of all South American cities.

If you would like us to arrange other excursions or activities in Rio, such as a helicopter ride over the city, a tour of the Maracana stadium, a visit to a samba school to see rehearsals for carnivals, cooking lessons or a course on Brazilian cocktails please just let us know. During your stay we recommend a visit to the Museum of Tomorrow in the revitalized Docklands area of the city and to the Selaron Steps at Santa Teresa.

Days 4-6: Iguassu Falls:

- Day 4: Arrival transfer to your hotel; 2 nights' accommodation.
- Recommended tour: Brazil side of the falls
- Day 5: Excursion to the Argentine side of the Falls.
- Day 6: Transfer to the airport in time for your flight to Buenos Aires.

The Iguassu Falls, on the border between Brazil and Argentina, are one of the great wonders of the natural world. A stay of two nights allows plenty of time to see the falls from both sides.

It is easy enough to arrange additional excursions such as a helicopter flight over the falls or a boat trip locally. We recommend walks in the national park on the Brazilian side or perhaps a visit to the nearby Itapu Dam which produces enough hydroelectricity to power southern Brazil, as well as the whole of Paraguay.

Days 6-9: Buenos Aires:

- Day 6: Arrival transfer from the airport to your hotel.
- Day 7: Half day city tour with private, English speaking guide.
- Optional dinner and Tango show.
- Day 8: Free day in Buenos Aires.
- Day 9: Departure transfer to the airport.

Buenos Aires is a modern and dynamic metropolis which manages to retain considerable charm and traditions. The endearing Recoleta district has tree-lined boulevards and elegance whilst the refurbished docklands area of Puerto Madero is now a thriving hubbub of restaurants, hotels and bars.

A tango show provides a display of intricate dance, evocative live music and songs known to every Argentine since childhood.

If you would like us to book other activities, such as tango classes, a football tour, cycle rides, our Pope Francis tour or a visit to notable bars and restaurants, please let us know. Other excursions include a day out at an estancia, a boat trip across the Rio de la Plata to Colonia in Uruguay or a visit to the Tigre Delta.

Seasons and Climate

Rio de Janeiro, the Iguassu Falls and Buenos Aires are year-round destinations but you should note that the wet season is November to March. The Iguassu Falls will be at their fullest in March-April at the end of the wet season. Rio's carnival takes place in the wet season (21-25 Feb 2020; 12-16 Feb 2021) with the Champion's Parade a week later (29 Feb 2020; 20 Feb 2021). The wet season never stops a Carioca from having fun, so don't let it put you off either.

Entry

British nationals travelling on a full, valid British passport do not require a visa for entry to Brazil or Argentina. You should ensure that your passport is valid for at least 6 months beyond the date of arrival.

Vaccinations

It is advisable to check your immunizations for Polio, Tetanus, Typhoid and Hepatitis A. If you have been to Africa within 3 months of arriving in South America you may need to provide proof of vaccination against Yellow Fever.

Exchange Rates

Costs in Latin America are subject to $/£ exchange rates. At present we are working on current exchange rates of 1.20 (on 8 Aug 2019) although this may be subject to change, particularly in the event of a No Deal Brexit.
